

Social and Personal

A WEDDING of much interest to society was celebrated yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Glessell Conway, daughter of Mrs. Charles Glessell Conway, became the bride of Samuel Packard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Packard, of "Dumfries." The ceremony took place at the residence of Mrs. Conway, 111 East Franklin Street, with only a few intimate friends and the families of the bride and groom present. Little Misses Mary Warren and Dorothy Conway, nieces of the bride, were maids of honor and the bride's only attendants. They were charming frocks of white mulle and lace. Charles Register was his brother's best man. Henry C. Warren, of Orange, gave the bride away, and after an informal reception, Mr. and Mrs. Register left for a wedding trip North. They will be at home at "Dumfries" on their return.

Miss Packard's Engagement.
The Baltimore News of Tuesday contains the following of interest to society here:
"An engagement of much interest to a large contingent of society which has recently been announced is that of Miss Emily Packard to Sidney Harrison, of Brookline, Mass. Miss Packard is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Packard, of 806 St. Paul Street, and is a sister of Mrs. A. Morris Tyson and the Misses Elise C. Margaret and Josephine Packard. The wedding will take place in the spring."

Miss Packard is one of the most attractive girls in Baltimore society, and has several times visited her cousins, Misses Eda and Elizabeth Atkinson, and Misses Roberta and Barbara Trigg, in Richmond.

Reinhardt-West Wedding.
Miss Frances Eileen West and William Ryan Reinhardt were married at half-past 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in St. Bartholomew's Church, New York, by Dr. Sidney W. Usher. A wedding luncheon was held immediately afterward at the Cafe Madrid, at which were present as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mindl, Miss Mary Jordan, Paul Gulick and Philip Mindl, Jr. After a short honeymoon in New York, the bride and groom will return to Richmond, where they will be at home after April 2.

Miss Reinhardt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reinhardt, of Richmond, and is associated with the Cable Piano Company. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sarah B. West, also of this city, and is well known in musical circles here. She is the daughter of the late Dr. Christian Church, Richmond, and was formerly soloist at St. Paul's Church. She is also well known in the concert field.

Reception To-Night.
The members of the Second Baptist Church will give a reception this evening.

Dunlop Flour

The Flour That's Always Right
The Dunlop Mills Richmond, Va.

WOULD

You have your friends think well of you?
Follow this plan—you'll win if you do—
They'll be well satisfied
When Foster's you've tried
For your photographs—to life they're true!
112 North Ninth Street.

Spring Opening

E. Enders and Son,
Representing the Ladies' New York Tailoring Co.,
of Fifth Avenue,
is now ready to take your order for fine ladies' hand-made suits. Workmanship, style and finish guaranteed. Call to inspect our suitings and our latest fashionable show plates of New York.
Paris. 604 E. Main St.

J. B. Mosby & Co.

Misses' New Suits, $15.00. By far the best values in Richmond at the price.

"GREEN CASTLE"

Kitchen Cabinets will lessen kitchen labor. Try one. Sold by Rothert & Co.,
Fourth and Broad.

Steadfast

Good as the Name. Virginia Made
WILTSHIRE'S
1009 E. Main St.

The Best in FURNITURE

Always
Sydnor & Hundley, Inc.

Butter Nut

The Bread of Quality.
NOLDE BROS.

Girls' Wash Dresses

(Sizes from 6 to 14 years.)
No mother can see the extensive showing without being thoroughly delighted.
Percale Dresses, tan and new blue, with plaid piping and trimmed, three-quarter sleeve, square neck, regular $1.98 $2.50 value; special $1.98
Plaid French Gingham, combination sailor collar and tie, full plaited skirt, trimmed with band of Swiss embroidery, regular $3.98 values; special $3.00
Kaufmann & Co.

Kaufmann & Co.

ing at 8:15 o'clock in honor of their new pastor, Dr. Louis B. Warren, who has lately been installed. The service will be held in the main auditorium of the church, and Dr. William H. Harrison, assisted by the deacons of the church and their wives, will receive with Dr. Warren. An elaborate musical program has been arranged, and the evening will be held in the evening. A committee of the women of the church will also assist in doing the honors of the evening's entertainment, which promises to be a very pleasing affair. All the members of the church and congregation are cordially invited to be present.

Annual Meeting.
The board of directors of the Retreat for the Sick will hold their annual meeting to-day at 12 noon at the Retreat. All treasurers and chairmen of committees are requested to be present and make their reports.

Met Monday Night.
The Frances Willard branch of the Woman's Temperance League of America met with Mrs. Lee Todd, 1217 West Main Street, last Monday night. Devotional exercises were conducted by James W. Anderson, followed by a prayer by Mr. Wood, after which an address on "Temperance" was made by Lee Todd. Several new members were received into the league at this meeting, and Mrs. Wood, the president, presented a book to little Miss Melvina Todd, the youngest member in temperance work.

A social hour followed the conclusion of the business brought before the meeting, and Mrs. James W. Anderson assisted Mrs. Todd in serving supper. The next meeting of the league will be on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at 165 West Marshall Street.

Public Reception.
A public reception will be held to-day from 12 to 6 o'clock at the Belle Bryan Day Nursery, 201 North Ninth Street. This reception is for the purpose of allowing the public to inspect the work done at the nursery and the improvements that have been recently made.

Hostesses at Tea Rooms.
The tea room at the Jefferson House in favor and every afternoon finds the tables crowded with tea drinkers. Hostesses for this afternoon will be Mrs. John Hayes, Mrs. William Rutherford and Mrs. Godwin Boykin.

Meet This Morning.
There will be a meeting this morning at 11 o'clock at the Woman's Club of the Southern Industrial and Educational Society of Virginia. The object of this society is to give higher education to the strong-minded and strong-bodied children of the mountains of the South. All women interested in this work are cordially invited to be present at the meeting this morning.

Golden Wedding.
Mr. and Mrs. Casper Funkhouser celebrated their golden wedding on Saturday at the old Funkhouser home, near Mount Jackson. The property has been in the continuous possession of the Funkhouser family since the coming of Virginia's first settlers to lower Valley of Virginia to this place in 1775.

The celebration was the occasion of a delightful family gathering, the seven sons and one daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Funkhouser, coming together for the first time in twenty-five years.

Of Interest Here.
The Army and Navy Journal and the Sunday papers of Poughkeepsie contain the following announcement, which will be of interest to Richmond society: "Mr. and Mrs. Frank Husbrouck announce the engagement of their daughter, Olga, to T. Cutsby Jones, of Norfolk, the marriage to take place in the spring."

Y. W. C. A. Meetings.
Miss Anna D. Casler, territorial secretary of the Young Woman's Christian Association, will deliver an address to that local organization at 11 o'clock this morning at 709 East Franklin Street.

At 8:30 P. M. in the gymnasium at Fourth and Cary, another meeting will be held when Miss Casler will again speak, assisted by Miss Irene Headley Ames.

In and Out of Town.
Miss Liza Mason will leave this morning for her home in Fauquier county, visiting relatives here for several weeks.

Miss Rebecca Walker has returned to New York, after a visit of some weeks to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Walker.

Wetly Beverly, who has been in Lynchburg for several days, has returned to the city.

Robert Scott, of this city, is spending some time with friends in Roanoke, Va.

Mrs. W. S. McIntosh, of Newport News, has as her guest her mother, Mrs. J. A. Saunders, of Richmond.

Mrs. Juliet Chilton Keith will not leave town until late in the spring, when she will probably visit relatives in Fauquier.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Maffie and Mrs. S. M. Maffie have returned to the city, after a visit to Miss Helen Cameron, in Petersburg.

Miss Anna Luthicum has returned to Fredericksburg, after an extended stay in Richmond.

Miss Bessie Gilman, who has been the guest of friends here, has returned to her home in Charlottesville.

Floyd Smith, of Pulaski, has been spending several days in this city as the guest of friends.

Miss Gertrude Pandorf, who has been ill at a hospital here, is now much improved, and has been moved to the home of her sister, Mrs. Odell, 1305 North First Street.

T. H. Haines has returned to Newport News, after spending several weeks in this city.

Miss Helen Montague will return to Richmond to-day, after visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Miss Watkins, of this city, is visiting Mrs. T. W. Hewitt at her home in Charles City, Va.

DANCE IN LOUISA.

One of Most Beautiful Germans of Season Given Tuesday Night.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Louis, Va., March 15.—A beautiful German was given in the Town Hall Tuesday night by the young people. Besides the usual dancers from Louisa, a number of young people from a distance attended. The German was Miss Elizabeth Flanagan and Richard O'Connell, Miss Beulah Goodwin and Edmund Pendleton, Miss Lucy Goodwin and Jesse Donnelly, Miss Lucie Goodwin and Joe Williams, Miss Keiburne Barret and Wyndom Willis, Miss Josephine Henderson and Cecil Crank, Miss Lucy Sims and Stapleton Willis, Miss Mamie Johnson and Maurice Stratton, Miss Louis Crank and George Sommers, Chaperons, Mr. Annie K. Barret and Mrs. David Walker.

Others present were Mrs. James Crank, Miss Lillian Goodwin, Carroll Kay, Joe Baker, Johnson Crawford, Allan Flanagan, Dr. C. C. Vaughan and Frank Vaughan.

The young women who served refreshments were Roberta McCue, Daisy Arthur and Lucy Barret.

ANXIOUS TO DIE.

Man Cuts Throat and Then Asks Counselors to Kill Him.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Bowling Green, Va., March 15.—Walter Howard, who formerly lived in Jersey, but who for several months had been living in Bowling Green, near Delos, cut his throat Monday with his pocketknife. Little Howard had been acting queerly for several days, and his pistol and razor were taken from him. On Monday morning he stated that he was in company with several others, and said he would go ahead. He soon disappeared in the woods, and his companions, becoming alarmed, went in search of him. When found he was sitting on a stump, with his throat badly cut. He was taken to the hospital, but he asked several of them to kill him. He is about forty-five years old and unmarried.

WILL COMPETE FOR MEDAL AWARDED BY UNIVERSITY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lexington, Va., March 15.—The literary societies of Washington and Lee University met last Saturday night and elected representatives to compete for the final of the annual literary competition of the year. The joint celebration of the societies is an annual event, and is held on Monday night of the final week, when the contestants come together and battle for the highest forensic honor within the reach of the student body. Each society has two representatives, and this year the Washington Society will be represented by D. B. Straley, of New Oxford, Pa., and the Lee Society by O. B. Buns, of Beckley, W. Va., and Chas. E. Buns, of Ackerman, Miss.

Irvin Signs With Danville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Harrisonburg, Va., March 15.—"Brownie" Irvin, of Woodstock, is visiting friends in Harrisonburg. Brownie is a professional baseball player, and will report April 1 to Danville and will report April 1 to Danville and will report April 1 to Danville.

HER TRIP

ALL IN VAIN

Ontario Lady Journeys to Richmond, in Search of Relief, But Without Success.

Ontario, Va.—"I went to Richmond," says Mrs. M. L. Anderson, "and consulted a specialist; I tried almost everything in the medicine line, but nothing proved a cure until I tried Cardui. I had indigestion very bad, and a complication of diseases.

Although I had no faith in it I bought a bottle of Cardui, but soon there was such a change. I was certainly benefited. I felt so different! Then I began to take the medicine in earnest. Now I can do my work, and I eat and sleep like a young person.

Cardui also cured my daughter of womanly troubles. I keep Cardui in the house all the time. It is a great blessing to all women who need it."

If you suffer from any form of womanly weakness, try Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui helps nature to perform a cure in a natural, easy way.

It is made from mild herbs, having a gentle tonic effect on the womanly constitution.

It improves the appetite, tones up the weak, nervous system and helps to make pale cheeks look fresh and rosy.

Cardui is successful. Try it.

N. B.—Write to Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper on request.

Butter Beans

A real delicate, small, tender, fine garden flavor.
13c can.

Hermann Schmidt

Monroe 101.
504 East Broad Street.

"Those Who Want the Best,"

Buy "Hoosier" Kitchen Cabinets.
Sold exclusively by Ryan, Smith & Co.

Drink Panacea Mineral Spring Water

Every bottle, cork and cap sterilized before filling.
OWENS & MINOR DRUG CO.,
Richmond, Va.

FORREST TO VISIT SONS OF VETERANS

A. P. Hill Camp Will Entertain Distinguished Guest To-Night.
BANQUET OF BIBLE CLASS
Bank Cases to Be Called Next Week—Other Petersburg News.

Times-Dispatch Bureau.
109 North Sycamore Street.
Petersburg, Va., March 15.—Adjutant-General Nathan B. Forrest, United Sons of Confederate Veterans, will officially visit A. P. Hill Camp of Sons in this city, to-morrow night, and will be given a cordial welcome and reception. General Forrest is the son of the great Confederate cavalry leader. The purpose of his visit is to arouse interest in the Sons' organization and to urge the needs for furthering its work. A large and representative audience from the various Confederate organizations in the city and vicinity is expected to greet him.

Banquet of Bible Class.
The Holt-Doan Men's Bible Class of the West End Baptist Church held their annual banquet last night in their class room at the church, and the occasion was one of great enjoyment. Covers were spread for largely over 100 persons, and the menu embraced both substantial and delicacies in abundance and variety. The women Sunday school teachers were the gracious and effective waiters. Addresses appropriate to the occasion were delivered by Rev. A. R. Love, pastor of the church, and W. M. Rucker, the teacher of the class.

The Holt-Doan Men's Bible Class has a large and enthusiastic membership, and the Sunday school of West End Church is one of the largest and most progressive in the city.

Hustings Court Cases.
Judge Mullen will open the March term of the Hustings Court to-morrow, but little business is expected to be transacted. Jurors have been notified not to report until Thursday of next week. The Appomattox Bank cases will probably be heard during this term of the court, or at least some of them, and these far exceed in interest all other cases on the docket.

The Funeral of the Confederate Soldier.
The funeral of the Confederate soldier, James McMahine, took place this afternoon at 6 o'clock. A. P. Hill Camp attended and paid appropriate honors to the memory of their comrade.

The Fair Association is going to grade and improve the race track at West End Park, where the fairs are to be held in future, and intends to give the public some good racing next fall.

Frances Elvira Randolph, Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, has secured a marker, suitably inscribed, to be placed at Battersea, the historic home of Colonel John Banister, which is now owned by Captain Dennis Perkins. The chapter intends to mark other historic points in and around Petersburg.

A meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was held last night at the office of the president.

Freedom from Golds & Headaches.
Indigestion & Sour Stomach, Biliousness & Constipation, and other ills, due to an inactive condition of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, may be obtained most pleasantly and most promptly by using Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna. It is not a new and untried remedy, but is used by millions of well-informed families throughout the world to cleanse and sweeten and strengthen the system whenever a laxative remedy is needed.

When buying note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on every package of the genuine.

Regular price 50¢ per bot. one size only. For sale by all leading druggists.

DR. VAN DYKE WILL DELIVER LECTURES

Carolina to Confer Degree on All Students Who Left to Enter War.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Chapel Hill, N. C., March 15.—The lectures on the McNeal foundation at the University of North Carolina will be delivered by Dr. Henry Van Dyke, preacher, scholar, author and professor in Princeton University, on March 21, 25, 26. There will be three of the lectures, the subjects of which are: "The Poetry of Nature," "The Poetry of the Past," and "The Poetry of the Future." Dr. Van Dyke is best known as a writer of lyrical prose, although he is a poet of some note.

First of all the educational institutions of the country, North or South, the University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon its students who had fought for the Union. Princeton University has given this honor to the G. A. R. men who were students who had fought for the Union. The University of North Carolina will confer the degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who during the period from 1861 to 1865, were in the military or naval service of the Confederate or the Union. More than one institution before this has conferred the B. S. degree upon the graduates of the University of North Carolina, who had fought for their own side. The University of North Carolina several years ago bestowed this honor upon